Sir:

Applicants hereby submit that the present application was deemed abandoned because when the application was filed, the required basic filing fee was not provided. The entire delay from the due date to pay the basic filing fee, September 27, 2004, until filing of this petition under 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b) today, was unintentional.

The undersigned believe the entire delay in paying the required basic filing fee was unintentional and hereby respectfully request that the petition for revival of this application be granted.

If the Examiner believes that there are any issues that can be resolved by a telephone conference, or that there are any informalities that can be corrected by an Examiner's amendment, please call the undersigned at 404-495-3678.

Respectfully submitted,
